

Especially For Moms

Only 2 spots left!

A discussion group for parents of special needs children!

Once Upon a Treetop, Inc. in conjunction with Yvonne Sinisgalli, M.S. ED., BA Psychology, trained facilitator for peer discussion groups and mom of a special needs child, and Kristen Urban, M.S. ED., ABA Therapist, and mom of a special needs child, is very proud to offer the moms of our "Especially for Me" kids an opportunity to socialize with other moms in similar situations facing similar challenges in raising children with special needs. It is a tough job -- it is an every day, every moment job. Take some quality time for yourself too!

Join us for an ongoing discussion group where your efforts and challenges are understood and appreciated! Come make some new friends -- learn from them and gain a support network for yourself too!

Topics will include but are not limited to:

Parental awareness of special needs children including reactions and acceptance of child's disability.

Family life and the changes that have occurred.

Support services: where to find them, who to go to, parent training, home therapists, Internet chats, etc.

Coffee and refreshments will be served for added fun!

Price: $50.00 per individual

Meeting Days:

Wednesdays

from 8:00 pm - 9:30 pm

Call today to register!

Especially for Me

Open Play for children with special needs!

We are having a wonderful time entertaining our special needs friends and we are proud to provide them with the opportunity to be stress-free and have fun!

Our Especially for Me program is gaining popularity! In an effort to keep our environment safe and fun, we keep the numbers down! So please, register in advance to secure your spot! AND BRING SOCKS :)

Don't miss these special events! They are great opportunities for our special Treetop kids to:

engage in imaginative play!

develop motor skills in a one-of-a-kind play unit built with kids and parents in mind!

improve communication and social skills while interacting with other kids in our creative, LOW STRESS environment.

experience many unique sensory exercises in our little city!

Parents, caregivers, and therapists too will benefit from mingling with others while their children play in a safe and supervised open environment.

Call today for more information about our next Especially for Me event and make your reservation!

Once Upon a Treetop, Inc.

151 Dupont Street

Plainview, New York 11803

516-349-1140

Visit us at www.onceuponatreetop.com!