

Merrick SEPTA's "Super Nanny" is back!

Is parenting harder than you thought?

It doesn't have to be.

Please join us for our very own "Super Nanny"

Child Behavior Specialist, Tom Spinoza

He is back to answer some of your most important questions.

Wednesday, November 19 at 7:00 PM
Levy-Lakeside Elementary School

Supervised child activities are planned for Merrick UFSD children. You may drop them off in room #7. Please make a reservation by calling Michele Walsh at 546-9614 or email merricksepta@hotmail.com

Does your child give you a difficult time with homework?

Do you have to deal with whining or crying when you go to a store?

Is it easier to give in?

Does your child have difficulty with sports?

Is it difficult for your child to make and keep friends?

Why is bedtime always a problem?

Is your child a "picky eater"?

If the answer to any of these questions is "YES"!

Do not miss this important meeting.

Refreshments will be served.

SEPTA meetings are open to everyone.
